of our entire stock.

The Women, s Store

COATS-

$7.50 $10 $15 $25

Special Sale of DRESSES

Dresses for Evening, Afternoon, or General Wear. Very best styles. Choice of Crepe de $15

These Dresses sold at $25, $30, and $35.

latest decrees. Honest reductions in all departments.

Chine, Satins, Velvets, Etc.....

ership contest, and an elaborate social Calendar.

SUBORDINATE LODGES.

December 25-Eather, No. 6, election. PATRIARCHS MILITANT.

W. Wolfsheimer, ir.

on that date.

year 1915, also Grand Lodge.

Amity Lodge to Attend Church

Services.

aid in the conferring of the tertain.

ington. No. 1, held a well-attended sension Tuesday evening in the canton room, Odd Fellows' Hall. In view of the fact that the next regular meeting of the Auxiliary falls on January 12, the night of the institution of the Rebekah asse bly by the Grand Lodge in the auditorium of Odd Fellows' Hall, that meeting will be omitted and the auxiliary will not meet until January 25, when the newly elected officers will be installed, following which the ladies will hold a social session, to which they invite all members of the canton and their families.

Phoenix Lodge Postpones Installa-

At these four prices you will have choice of every new material shown this season, in a wide range of handsome

DOINGS IN FRATERNAL CIRCLES

Masonic Affairs.

Calendar. LODGES.
Grand Lodge, election.
-La Fayetie, No. 18, special M. M.
-Washington Centennial, No. 16, s

ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS. conter 25 Nount Vernon, No. 3, called off, susry 1-School of instruction, KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES. fanuary 1-Celumbia, No. 7. MYSTIC ORDER OF VEILED PROPHETS. December 25-Kallipolia Grotto, No. 15, imports

ALMAS TEMPLE PATROL. December 28—Ouristmes tree gathering. EASTERN STAR CHAPTERS. December 26—Temple, No. 15; Columbia, January 1—Martha, No. 4.

Columbia Commandery, K. T., Observes Christmas.

ander Grant, past grand commander. Brookland, were enjoyable contributions. Templar, and right worshipful to the program for the evening. The toast "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men," was responded to by Judge Walter B. Pettus, past commander of Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, and most excellent grand high priest of Royal Arch Masons of the District of Columbia, who pointed out that

Your Credit Is Good.

829 Seventh Street.

Between H and I.

Open Saturday Evenings.

Alterations Free.

Start the

New Year

Wear Stylish,

Good Looking

and Get Them

Right---

Clothes---

Come Here

On Credit

the Season's

Coats, Suits

Balmacaans

For Men and Women

A WEEK

Pays

the

A Big

Stock of

Best in and

Fidelity Chapter, O. E. S., Holds Installation.

Worthy Grand Matron Jessie W. Coles installed the following officers of Fidelity Following the usual custom, Columbia Chapter, No. B, at the regular meeting Chapter, No. B, at the regular meeting Tuenday, evening: Mrs. Stella Knapp, matron: Mr. George Topham. patron: Mrs. Lyda I. Riley, associate matron: Mrs. Lyda I. Riley, associate conductress: Mrs. Emily Fletcher, associa and the choir sang one stanza of "Lead, Kindly Light."

The toast to the Chief Magistrate was responded to by Sir Knight Wallace Streater, past master of Washington Centennial Lodge, No. 14, F. A. A. M., and past grand patron of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. He paid tribute to President Wilson for his Electa at the January meeting. The infections was corrections were corrected to the January meeting. The infections was corrected to the Control of the Control o paid tribute to President Wilson for his efforts in maintaining peace between our nation and the nations of the world.

The toast to the Masonic fraternity was responded to by Right Eminent Sir Alexander Grant many friends were present.

Park, and a reading by Mrs. Moister, of Takoma Brookland, were enjoyable contributions

Albert Pike Consistory Elects Officers.

The annual election of Albert Pike Consistory, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, was held Tuesday. December 22, resulting as follows: Aller, Bussius, thirty-third degree honorable, venerable master of Kadosh; William Taylos, Sayados, thirty-third degree honorable, venerable master of Kadosh; William Bussius, thirty-third degree honorable, venerable master of Kadosh; William Tayloe Suyder, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H., prior; John H. von Herrmann, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H., preceptor; Milton Hopfenmaier, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H., chancellor; George B. Davis, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. R. Davis, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H., minister of state; Louis Goldsmith, thirty-third degree honorable, almoner and treasurer; Elmer E. Simpson, thirtysecond degree, K. C. C. H., registrar; Monie Sanger, thirty-third degree, hon-orable, building trustee. The venerable master-elect made the folwing appointments: Nathan Weill, thirty-second degree. K. C. C. H., primate; Horace P. McIntosh, thirty-second de-gree, K. C. C. H., master of ceremonies; Roe Fulkerson, thirty-second degree, expert; Lem Towers, jr., thirty-second de-gree, assistant expert; Sulaimaan Daavid, thirty-second degree, standard bearer; Charles G. F. Toepper, thirty-second degree, K. C. C. H., master of the guard,

Washington Centennial to Hold

by Past Master Evander French, as fol-lows: Paul E. Lesh, worshipful master; James S. McCarthy, senior warden; Marx nes S. McCarthy, senior warden; Mark Kahn, junior warden; Robert R. Cooke, jr., senior deacon: George Duval, jr., Junior deacon: David A. Pulton-senior steward: Herbert M. Osborn, junior steward: Past Master Jason Waterman, secretary: Past Master Walwaterman, secretary, rask master sat-ter B. Pettus, treasurer; Rev. John Weidley, chapiain; Past Master John Apple, organist; Past Master John J. Hill, tiler, and John C. Buiger, assistant tiler, Past Master Evander French was installed as master of ceremonies by Worshipful Master Lesh, George Duval, , was appointed chairman of the com-ttee to visit the sick for the current quarter.

Right Worshipful James W. Witten, unior grand warden of the Grand Lodge in an eloquent address presented Past Master Leonard P. Steuart with a beau-tiful past master's jewel on behalf of the lodge, which was accepted in an appropriate speech.

Charles Block, who was a member of the lodge forty-one years, died at his home in this city, Tuesday morning. His remains were interred with Masonic honors at the Hebrew Cemetery, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Past Master David Kahn is seriously iil at Garfield Hospital.

At the stated communication of the lodge on January 6, regular business will be transacted, but there will be no de-gree work. Immediately following the closing of the lodge, Herbert M. Osborn, unior steward, will entertain the memers with a moving picture show in the Worshipful Master Paul E, Lesh entertained the officers at his home last evening, when plans for the ensuing year were discussed and approved.

William F. Hunt Chapter, O. E. S., Has Notable Event.

One of the more notable Eastern Star events occurring recently was the in-stallation of the officers of William F. Hunt Chapter, No. 16, which occurred at a special meeting held in the new Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, De-cember 19. The ceremony was conducted by the grand matron, Mrs. Jessie W. Cowles, assisted by the grand marshal. Mrs. Bena Barnhart, and the grand chaplain, Mrs. Lillian Carll. The installation, which was beautifully conducted was in some respects rather unique for this jurisdiction; especially was this true of the property of the pr of the music, which was especially selected and to which original words were ritten for the occasion and sung by Ruth Chapter's choir under the direction of Mrs. Saliy S. Wilson. Mrs. Annie Sherr is the new worthy

The evening was replete with presents and speeches. The retiring matron, Mrs. Katle Rose, as presented by the chapter, through the retiring patron, with a past matron's jewel, and she was also the re-ciplent of tokens of esteem from other Masonry, wherever it prevalis, guarantees peace among men of all races and creeds. The toast to the meet eminent grand master of Knights Templar was responded to promptly at 12 o'clock noon by Eminent Sir Columbia. Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, and past grand master of Masons of the District of Columbia. The toast to the Grand Commandery, No. 3, Knights Templar, and past grand master of Masons of the District of Columbia. The toast to the Grand Commandery, No. 3, Knights Templar. The toast to the slater commanderies was responded to by Eminent Sir John A. Moyser, past commander of Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar. The toast to the slater commanderies was responded to by Eminent Sir Frank E. Gibson, past commander of Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar. The service was opened by prayer, followed by the choir and assembled sir knights. Refreshments were served.

Pidelity Chapter, O. E. S. Holds.

Ashlar Club Enjoys Good Program.

Kallipolis Grotto Glee Club was the guest Monday evening of Pentalpha Lodge. No. 2. F. A. A. M., and furnished a two hours' entertainment. It was an open meeting of Pentalpa Lodge, and the seating capacity of the lodge room was taxed to its utmost. That the entertainment was highly appreciated was evidenced by the numerous encores. After the Prophets were received and made welcome by Senior Warden J. Henri Wagner and a response by Monarch P. R. Pullman, the following program was rendered:

Address. "The Grotto," Past Monarch R. B. Dickey; medley, Glee Club; solo, Edward L. Hutchinson; duet, Kirk C. Miller and Paul McSween; monologue, in Italian dialect, I. S. Goldamith; solo, Carl R. Mulvehill; recitation, Irish dislect, E. W. Libby; solo, Master Samuel Emmons; solo, Charles A. Stevens; solo, Kirk C. Miller; solo, Paul McSween; solo, John L. Wilkinson. The program concluded with "Schnitzelbank," by Fred H. Kramer and chorus.

The accompaniaments were furnished by Jeoue Haidenbeimer. M. Hanlein.

The accompaniaments were furnished by Jacque Heidenheimer, M. Hanlein, by Jacque Heidenheimer, M. Hanlein, and Dr. A. H. Staples.

Past Monarch Edward S. Schmid, who

Fast Monarch Edward S. Schmid, who is also grand orator of the Order of Veiled Prophets, has been commissioned by Grand Monarch E. L. Volgenau to Institute Koran Grotto, of Philadelphia. Kat-polis Grotto feels keenly the compainent bestowed upon one of its members and it is expected that a number of local prophets will accompany Past of local prophets will accompany Past Monarch Schmid to Philadelphia to assist in the institution of the new grotto.
The date has not yet been set for the ceremony, but it will probably take place early in January.

The annual nomination of officers will occur at a meeting to be held Tuesday evening at Chamber of Commerce Hall. Ceremonials were held on December 11 by Hejaz Grotto No. 42, of New Haven, Conn., and by Achbar Grotto No. 21, of Columbus, Ohio, on December 17. Omar Grotto, No. 28, of Hoston, Mass., an-nounces a "ladies night" entertainment for December 28.

Ashler Club Enjoys Good Program. At a meeting of the Ashlar Club, held in the Pythian Temple last night, the following program, under the direc-tion of Capt, John E. Brooks, was ren-dered: Piano solo, "Moskowski's Waltz de Concert." Miss Gertrude Brooks; reci-tation, Miss Blanche Aileen Radelfinger: soprano solo, selection from "The Pire-fly," Miss Lila Watts Collins; violin obli-Special.

Paul E. Lesh, worshipful master of Washington Centennial Lodge, No. 14, announces a special communication for Thrush at Eve," Miss Augusta Ma-announces a special communication for Wednesday evening. December 30, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of conferring the M. M. degree on five candidates. The master will preside during the conferring of the degree, and will be assisted by Past Master Evander French, and other past masters. The lodge's degree team will have charge of that part of the work usually assigned to its members. It is expected that the degree work will conclude at 9:30, when refreshments will be served. Members of all lodges are invited to attend this, and all other communications of the lodge.

Officers for the ensuing Masonic year were installed at a special communication of the vening of the 19th instant, by Past Master Evander French, as for All the selections were well rendered.

All the selections were well rendered and were received with much applause, the performers, without exception, being obliged to respond with encores. The Knights of Pythias Events.

er 30-Mount Verson, No. 5, election; Union, No. 22, election.
PYTHIAN SISTERS.
PYTHIAN SISTERS. December 30-Friendship Temple, No. 9, business

W. E. Dentinger Heads Century Lodge.

Last Monday evening Century Lodge No. 20, conferred the rank of knight on four esquires, bringing the total of new members taken into the lodge this year up to twenty-two. Among the visitors who assisted the regular team were Joseph Connor, Albert Kahlert, W. H. Konigsberg, and Sam Wurdock.

Konigsberg, and Sam Wurdock.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Chancellor, Joseph Stein; prelate, Herman C. Hansen; master of work, Sam S. Price; master-atarms, T. O. Klath: trustee, for three years, Mark Stearman; representatives to the Grand Lodge, Mark Stearman, Edward Seidam, George B. Tallman, Dr. G. Frank Day, and M. T. Pimes.

The installation of officers will occur on the church services Sunday evening. January 10, was started. A cordial invitation has been extended to the membership to be present with Amity Lodge on that occasion at Gorsuch Church. Four-and-a-half and L streets southwest. Langdon Lodge to Elect Officers.

Tomorrow evening January 10, was started. A cordial invitation has been extended to the membership to be present with Amity Lodge on that occasion at Gorsuch Church. Four-and-a-half and L streets southwest. Langdon Lodge to Elect Officers.

Tomorrow evening January 10, was started. A cordial invitation has been extended to the membership to be present on the occasion at Gorsuch Church. Four-and-a-half and L streets southwest. Langdon Lodge to Elect Officers.

Tomorrow evening January 10, was started. A cordial invitation has been extended to the membership to be present of the previous properties. The properties of the church services Sunday evening. January 10, was started. A cordial invitation has been extended to the membership to be present with Amity Lodge on that occasion at Gorsuch Church.

Tomorrow evening January 10, was started. A cordial invitation has been extended to the membership to be present with Amity Lodge on that occasion at Gorsuch Church.

Tomorrow evening Langdon Lodge, No. 25, in addition to having an election of officers will be present the course of the church services sunday evening.

The installation of officers will occur on Monday evening, January 4, Grand Master-at-arms John B. Dickman, and Past Grand Chancellor Mark Stearman will serve as installing officers. Pythian Dramatic Club to Meet.

On Sunday afternoon, January 3, the Pythian Dramatic Club will meet in the chancellor's room at 3:30. A reception of new members will be held. The committee on by-laws will report, and regu-lar order of business will be adopted.

Syracusians Lodge to Have Special Events. Syracustans Lodge, No. 10, has elected the following officers for the coming year: Chancellor commander, C. H. Atherton: vice chancellor, Myron H. Adams; prelate, James F. Rooney; master of work, William M. Williams; keeper of records and seal, S. M. Pearson (re-electthrough the retiring patron, with a past matron's jewel, and also was also the recipient of tokens of esteem from other members present, not the least being a silver casserole from her officers. Mrs. Mary B. C. Shuman on behalf of the chapter, presented the retiring patron, Joseph A. Bennett, with a combination gold charm. The grand marghal, and the grand chaptain were also remembered, as well as was the newly installed worthy matron, who received several floral gifts of rare beauty.

In addition to those mentioned, those making presentation speeches included firs. Mary M. Schopeberger, Mrs. Mary S. Burton, Mrs. J. Ethel Richards, Mrs. Mary M. Schopeberger, Mrs. Mary S. Strickler, Mrs. A mad Proctor. Miss Anna R. Lander, Miss May Soel, Mrs. A Mad Proctor. Miss Anna R. Lander, Miss May Soel, Mrs. Lillian Bennett, Julge 25 ward P. Seeds, and John C. Proctor.

The coleration of the co gathering is arranged for, under the di-rection of the entertainment committee of the lodge, V. M. Fookes, J. H. Davis and Syracusians Lodge fraternally invites all the members of the sister lodges and visitors in this domain to be with them Covenant Lodge to Have New At- It on January 8, and have sent invitation to the members of Oriental Lodge, Covenant Lodge. No. 13, met in their on January 7, subject, of course, to the hail on Thirty-first street northwest. 5, of Alexandria, Va., and Laurel Lodge, No. 79, of Laurel, Md., to be with them on Monday evening. Past Grand Mas-ter Thompson, Grand Master Rapp, and many other visiting brothers were many other visiting brothers were present, and at the close of the meeting Doings of the Odd Fellows.

"Dutch supper" was served. The proposition for equiping the adjoining lodge room with pool tables, bowling alleys, and all interior games, bowling alleys, and discussed. The ern gymnasium, was discussed. The trustees of the hall also have been instructed to ascertain what change in the structure of the lower hall will be required, in order to comply with the building regulations, for installing erman, and W. Lorenze. Degree Master R. W. Thempson held a rehearsal of degree work. December 25—Union, No. 11: Corenant, No. 13; leacon, No. 15, and Langdon, No. 25, election. December 25—Washington, No. 6; Golden Rule, Inc. 21: Amity, No. 27, and Mount Pleasant, No.

rieniship, No. II., and recommendation of the comment of the comme moving pictures.

The operation of the moving pictures will be under the management of the lodge and tickets will be given to!

Mt. Pleasant Lodge Instituted. Canton Washington Holds Inspec The plans for the institution of Mount Pleasant Lodge: No. 3. Friday evening. Last Saturday evening Canton Washington, No. 1, P. M., held the annual in-December 18, were fully carried out, and the first officers of the lodge, noble grand. spection in the auditorium of I accompanists were Misses Gertrude Edwin A. Swingle; secretary, Bert V. Brooks and Marie Bontz and Mr. R. A. Swingle; treasurer, W. G. Thomas; warden, of Virginia, and Col. Freu A. Groome Smith.

Smith.

Rev. Charies E. Granger, Vice grants, aided by Col. Pohlig, of the Department of Virginia, and Col. Freu A. Groome William E. Andrews; guardian, Jacob N. of the Maryland Department, installed the officers. O. F. Hall. Lieut. Col. D. R. Stansbury, aided by Col. Poblig, of the Department of Virginia, and Col. Freu A. Groome

Almas Temple Patrol will hold its annual Christmas tree gathering tomorrow night at 1204 H street northwest. The festivities will begin at 8 o'clock and the members of the patrol are planning so many surprises for each other that it promises to be a memorable Christmas for the organization.

Belt: outer guard, Walter C. Brashears. As honored guests there were presumed into office by Past Grand Milton S. Pall and a corps of acting grand officers from Langdon Lodge, No. 25, the home lodge of the patrol are planning so of the grand master.

The meeting was presided over until the close of the institution ceremony by Past Grand Master and P. G. R. Thomas Langdon Lodge, No. 35, the nonLangdon Lodge, No. 35, the nonof the grand master.

The meeting was presided over until the close of the institution ceremony by Past Grand Master and P. G. R. Thomas W. Fowler. Addresses were made by Gen. Ernest W. Bradford. The seasion closed with the serving of refreshments.

ford and others. The lodge received, in addition to the applications of the char-ter members, applications from thirteen for membership by degrees. The outlook Eastern and Harmony Lodges Plan Joint Installation.

of the lodge is most promising. It will meet the first and third Tuesdays of Wednesday evening Eastern Lodge, No each month at 7.30 p. m. Next Tuesday evening the lodge will have degree work, a selected team from Federal City Lodge. . in addition to nominating officers for the coming term, conferred the second legree, while Harmony Lodge conferred the initiatory degree upon two candi-dates. The attendance at both lodges No. 20, confrring the initiatory degree upon three candidates. The lodge will also elect its permanent officers for the year 1915, also representatives to the was good, and arrangements were made to hold an election of officers next Wed-nesday evening, also have degree work. These two lodges will hold a joint installation of officers January 6, on which occasion Harmony Lodge will be the guest of Eastern Lodge. The installing officer will be Grand Warden William J. Amity Lodge, No. II, held its nomina-tion of officers last Tuesday evening and next Tuesday evening will hold an elec-tion. The distribution of the program

Events of the Maccabees.

December 28-Mount Vernon Tent, No. 4, North December 2s-Mannt vernon Prot. No. 4. Notice cant Temple, Twelfth and H streets northess; Anacostia Tent, No. 7. Masonic Hall, Anacostia, December 2s-Brightwood Test, No. 5. Maccaber Hall, Brightwood. December 21-District Test, No. 6. Four-and-a-half and if streets southwest.

Tomorrow evening Langdon Lodge, No. 26, in addition to having an election of officers, will have an initiatory degree, and extends a cordial invitation to all members of the order to be present and Mount Vernon Tent, No. 4, meets to morrow night in the hall, Twelfth and H streets, for the last time, having se-cured new quarters in the New Masonic Temple on Eighth street northeast. The tent will install the officers in their new Ladies Auxiliary of Canton to Enhome January 5 with a house warming. The Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Wash-

Brightwood Tent. No. 5, was visited last Tuesday night by the State commander, Refreshments were served. This tent will join the Lady Maccabees in a joint ir stallation Alexandria Tent, No. 2, reports already sixteen applications for the class, which is to have the degrees conferred January 18. The deputy, Mr. Brenner, expects to have at least twenty-five and soon after the class the tent proposes to have a banquet, and have the members of the hive as their events. hive as their guests.

When the District of Columbia was first their entrance by the veterans present invited to be present. Past Grand P. H. to District Tent. No. 8, which now holds It as a prize. But unless there is a change, the next award will be Georgetown Tent. No. 6, which will take place ver offered in Suits.

M. Brooksal

Every Suit, Coat, and Dress in the house marked 33 1-3 Per Cent Off regular prices, and in some in-

This sale is very important in view of the high character of the merchandise, which mirrors fashion's stances even greater reductions. These reductions emphasize our determination to effect a guick clearance the year.

AFTER-CHRISTMAS

January 1, the new contest will begin, and runs to the 1st of July, when the members only through the secretary at Red Men's Hall, Wisconsin avenue and and officers of the lodge.

At the next meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

X treet northwest. Louis Hopmaster was elected to membership. Remarks were made by Past Sach ms Schible. Mc-Kim, Wintermeyer, and Hummer.

> Seneca Tribe met at Bank Hall, 316 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, Friday

Tribe would put on a "war dance" at the pect to initiate an additional class tribes public entertainment to be held at fifty new members in April.

Northeast Temple on January 14 and 15.

of White Eagle Tribe; Senior Sagamore Clavoe: haplain, Clia Bickley; sergeant, Binner, of Osceola Tribe, and Taylor, of Sioux Tribe.

Clavoe: haplain, Clia Bickley; sergeant, Florence Rowe: lady-at-arma, Mary Hassioux Tribe. Osceola Tribe met at Masonic Temple, Hattie Taylor: musician, Miss Bett

Tennallytown, Wednesday night, Senior Brown, Sagamore Binner reported progress in organizing a "Redmen's Band."

Degree of Pocahontas.

Waneta Council met at Society Temple Fifth and G streets northwest, Tuesday night. The nomination of officers for the coming six months was held. The council will hold a cuchre party next Tuesday night.

Temple. Fifth and G streets northwest. Wednesday night. Plans were made to hold open meetings once a month for the Redmen and their friends. Interesting remarks were made by Past Sachem Alexander, of Osage Tribe; Doberty, of White Eagle, and Kubatz, of Logan

Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

William B. Cushing Camp. No. 2s, Division of Maryland, met Thursday evening in Grand Army Hall, with Arthur B. Barringer, commander, presid Wade Garrett Longley was ini-d. An invitation from the Ladies' Auxiliary of William B. Cushing Camp to attend a meeting to be held by them on Thursday, New Year's eve. December 31, in Grand Army Hall, was read, and the camp voted to attend. A tentative report was submitted by the chairman of the board of managers lately appointed to look into the mat-ter of organizing a drum corps com-posed of boys of the different schools in the city. The work of this board

At the meeting of the camp, to be held Thursday evening, January 7, the newly elected officers will be installed. Maj. Edward R. Campbell, past com-mander-in-chief of the Sons of Vet-

Cushing Camp, No. 39, and Lincoln Camp, No. 2, attended the reception given by Kit Carnon Post, G. A. R. to Hon. Frank B. Willis, governor-elect of Chio, at G. A. R. Hall. The two camps marched in groundly behind their neveral colors and several colors.

Leary, the degree director of Ruth Lodge, No. 2, was unable to be present.
National Tent, No. 1. From there it John E. McElroy, commander of Kit owing to an injury to his left foot, and he was sadly missed. It is reported that and then it was awarded to Brightwood his condition is much improved, and he will be present at the next lodge session.

The awarded to John E. McElroy, commander of Kit owing to an injury to his left foot, and he has awarded to Brightwood was Senator Jones, of Washington. The will be present at the next lodge session. other speakers in order were Rev. Paul R. Hickock, of William B. Cushing Camp; Dr. J. K. Gleeson, commander of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R.: Comrade McKee, of Kit Carson Post, Comrade McKee, of Kit Carson and the future governor of the Bu and the future governor of the Buckeye State, Hon. Frank B. Willis, a son of a veteran and the nephew of five veterans who served in the civil war on the Union side. Brother E. Albert Lang, of William B. Cushing Camp, entertained the assembly the langembly the second control of the sec banner will again be awarded to the the assembly by his singing of the sons, tent securing the largest number of members during the running six months, from January I to June 29.

"I Love the Whole United States." A number of encores were demanded and his final rendition, "It's a Long. Long Way to Tipperary." was loudly arvay to inperary, was loudly ap-plauded. He succeeded in getting the veterans to join with him on his repet-tion of the chorus to this piece, Comman-der McElroy observing later that the members of Kit Carson Post were in the habit of singing what they pleased Com-rade Bennett read a poem entitled "The Bronze Button." After the singing of "America," the meeting disbanded and those present were regaled by a delight-Logan Tribe, No. 8, met Thursday night ful lunch prepared by Mrs. Elizabeth Worrell Ball, of the National Tribune

1109 G Street

·SUITS-

100 Suits reduced to$10.95

150 Suits reduced to$25.00

SKIRTS-

and covert. Worth $8.00, $10.00 and $5.75

100 Dress Skirts, in black, navy,

$12.50.....

These prices represent the greatest reductions we have

Doings of the Maccabees.

Four hives, Victory, Brightwood, Lib-erty and Columbia, joined in a class initiation recently. The officers had been initiation recently. The officers had been chosen from each hive represented, with Pennsylvania avenue southeast, Friday night. Remarks were made by Chief of Records J. B. Altman, sr., Past Sachem Wine, Caywood, Ellison, and others.

Red Wing Tribe held their regular meeting at Painter's Hall. Sixth and G streets northwest. Past Sachem Boyer type of the president over the frappe type of the provided over the frappe type of Mount Verson Hive, No. 2, recently Osage Tribe met Monday night at Society Temple, Pifth and G streets northwest. Past Great Sachem Dr. W. S. Lilly M. Patrick: lieutenant commander, Whitman called the tribe to order with Hororor Topping record keeper. Mary the following visitors present: Doherty, A. Van Ness, finance auditor, Pearl Fanny C. McFall; captain of guard, Mrs

Notes of National Union.

December S. Federal Council, Perpetual Building Association Hall: Scott Council, Pythian Temple: Northeast Washington Council, Northeast Temple. January 2, Government Printing Office

'ouncil, Eagles' Hall; installation. Council, Eagles Hall; installation.
Potomae Council met at Pythian Temple last Monday evening. Because of the Bruen Home Benefit given by the National Union at Poli's Theater that same evening the meeting was called only to obligate six candidates.

Central Council met Monday evening in the council chamber at Perpetual Build-ing Association Hall. The following offi-cers were eletced: C. D. Shreve, president. S. Pollock, vice president; J. Brock, speaker; H. Wright, former president; George M. Copenhaver, usher; John J. Cook, chaplain; F. B. Norway, sergeantat-arms: Nathan Hazen, doorkeeper; Joseph Jacobi, financial secretary; A. Rosenthal, secretary; H. C. Surguy, T. A. Norway, and A. Rosenthal, delegates to cabinet. One candidate was initiated.

At the last regular meeting of National Council the following officers were elected: Edmund C. Ford president. (twenty-seventh year); Alfred Wilkinson vice president; Charles H. Caivert, speaker; William S. Deliviler, former president; George P. Hoskinson, secretary; Henry U. Scammell, financial secre tary; W. S. Deliviler, treasurer; S. G. Munson, chaplain; W. F. Gutshall, usher; Edward Briscoe, sergeant-at-arms; H. F. has just begun, and it is expected that by the time of the annual encampment of the commandery-in-chief, to be held in Washington next October, an efficient drum and fife corps will have been organized to take part with the Grand Army men in the parade.

At the meeting of the camp, to be

U. C. T. to Hear Grosevor Dawe.

Flag Council, No. 254, United Commer-cial Travelers of America, will hold its regular meeting for January at Pythian Temple, 1012 Ninth street northwest, Sat-urday evening, January 2.

bert Last Wednesday evening William B.

Cushing Camil No. 28 and Lincoln Camil.

Temple, 1012 Ninth street northwest, Satterday, Wilfred E. Garlick, and treasurer, Wilfred E. Garlick, and treasurer, William F. Wolfe.

Last Wednesday evening William B.

Cushing Camil No. 28 and Lincoln Camil.

were applauded enthusiastically upon Other Fraternal News on Page 9.

829 Seventh Street, Between H and L

All the Credit You Want

NO RED TAPE

Your Credit Is Good.